

An Astrologer's Code of Conduct

by Krushna Jugalkalani

- 1) I know that astrology is a truth and a Godly science, so a misuse of this science is an insult to my God.
- 2) I will use this science for social service and as a form of worship to my God.
- 3) I am aware of the flaws in human beings and will not treat any person with less importance when giving my guidance.
- 4) I will not misuse this science for the teaching of any religion, social matter or any unlawful act. Giving my guidance in such matters means my involvement in that act.
- 5) If I do not get an answer from the chart, I will NOT give my guidance! No guidance is better than the wrong guidance and I will accept my limitations about the chart as well as my own limitations as an astrologer.
- 6) I will not abuse or malign any other astrologer, nor will I take unfair advantage of another person's astrological knowledge by advertising unnecessarily at their expense without proper and due credit.
- 7) I will try to increase my knowledge and share it sincerely with other people of similar interests.
- 8) I will behave truthfully and honestly at all times and keep my conduct pure in heart.
- 9) Any information received from a client, in the course of giving my guidance to that person, shall be kept in strict confidence.
- 10) I will not use any chart for purposes of public discussion by identifying the native by name, unless I have his or her explicit permission to do so, nor will I misuse any information given to me by that person.
